Low dimensional Lie algebras and corresponding surface singularities

Meral Tosun
Galatasaray University
Mathematics Department

First we will briefly recall singularities of surfaces and some facts on Lie algebras. These two subjects interact in mysterious ways. The last part of the talk is devoted to one of these connections. We will construct some simple elliptic singularities of surfaces and their deformations using a special Lie algebra.